AGAP Members Discussion Regarding the General Assembly in Montreal
 3 Important Questions In preparation for the AGAP General Business Meeting in Montreal, there are three very important areas that need your attention and for which we need your feedback and opinions: (1) constitutional amendments, (2) current situation between CGJI, Künsnacht and ISAPZurich and (3) on the value of your diploma. In the AGAP Annual Newsletter (NL) which you have received by mail (it is also uploaded on www.agap.info ) you can read the background information regarding these questions. To proceed click on "3 Important Questions" above.	3	3	15 May 2010 08:32 am boethius →

This amendment makes clear that membership in AGAP is not automatic with an application. The current wording reads ambiguously, so clarity is required. It also brings our constitution up-to-date by correcting the C. G. Jung Institute's legal name and by including the International School of Analytical Psychology by name. For more information about these proposed changes to the constitution, you can read Page 6 of your copy of the Annual Newsletter 2010 which you received in the post in March, or you can read the newsletter posted on the AGAP website. Are these changes in the proposed Constitutional Amendment understandable to you? What questions come to mind in this regard? Back to top
