NEWSLETTER UPDATE SEPTEMBER 2009

Dear AGAP Member,

We have had a wonderful and busy AGAP month! The AGAP Forum 2009 was an overwhelming success and joy! The AGAP Executive Committee met for three days following to take up, with gusto, the business of running AGAP!

Forum 2009 Gala Closing Banquet at the Hotel Widder

The next big event for you to look forward to is the AGAP General Assembly to be held at the Montreal IAAP Congress in August 2010. On Sunday, August 22, directly following the Opening Reception of the Congress, AGAP members will gather for a buffet dinner and the Assembly. You will get all the details in the March 2010 Newsletter, but please reserve Sunday evening, August 22 for our triennial meeting.

Please remember that if you are in Washington, D.C. for the CNASJA meeting, we will have an AGAP luncheon meeting on Friday, October 2, 2009. This will be a good opportunity for you to catch up with Zurich News, particularly if you were not at the Forum.

Wishing you all a successful and rewarding autumn/spring!

Deborah Egger
President

"So Much Soul in the AGAP Forum"

Craig Stephenson, Jutta von Buchholtz, Jacquie Wright

... as was said by a participant of this year's Forum that took place in the historic Helferei in Zurich's old Niederdorf. The Forum 2009 was launched in glorious weather with an evening boat cruise on the beautiful Lake of Zurich, including apero, music by the Frogs, dancing and much reminiscing until the wee hours... "Once upon a time..." The program theme of Symptom Symbol Soul generated much interest and great appreciation for the high quality of lectures and colloquia. These were complemented by an excursion to the CG Jung Institute—with Vincent de Moura's animating presentation on the "Visions Seminars"—and a trip to the Psychological Club—where Emmanuel Kennedy shed light on details of this intriguing history. The performance of The Jung White Letters and the closing Gala at the elegant Hotel Widder brought events to a spectacular conclusion. Comments by participants confirm their enthusiasm for the overall event:

"AGAP Forum has a very different climate than an IAAP Congress...There is much more soul."

"I enjoy and treasure this gathering for its sense of community."

"Wonderful venue at the Helferei! Loved being in the Altstadt, close to restaurants and hotels."

"We got so much for our money!"

"...the atmosphere was wonderful and to meet colleagues from all over the world was exciting and joyful."

Executive Committee: Call for Candidates Stacy Wirth

We would like to announce 4 vacancies in the ExCo as per the General Assembly in Montreal, in August 2010. The departing members are Deborah Egger (President), Diane Cousineau Brutsche, Dariane Pictet and Jacqueline Wright.

Please note that the president is the only constitutionally specified office. After elections, the new ExCo members decide among themselves who will assume the other offices and jobs. All candidates must have email and internet access, and be willing to meet in Zurich over 3 long weekends each year. The travel costs are largely covered by AGAP.

We hope that a number of you will consider running. To nominate a colleague you must have the person's agreement. All candidates will be introduced in the Annual Newsletter, in March 2010. If you are interested and/or want more details, please contact the President:

Ethics Committee: Call for Candidates John Desteian

The AGAP Ethics Committee is presently one person short, and is seeking a volunteer to be appointed by the Executive Committee to the committee temporarily, until elections are held in Montreal at the AGAP General Assembly next August. According to the Constitution, the volunteer must be a man, to replace Craig Stephenson, who has resigned in order to join the Executive Committee. Ideally, the person appointed would be willing to run for the position next year. The duties of the members of the ethics committee include: appointing local AGAP members to evaluate ethics complaints; making decisions on the complaint according to the determinations of the evaluations conducted by the local analysts; and determining consequences if a complaint has been found to be valid. While being on the ethics committee is not a glamorous job, nor one that is likely to bring much praise or support, it is nevertheless an important position in this modern age, one which asks for both compassion and good judgment.

Please consider volunteering to be appointed, and know that you will be serving our profession, our colleagues and our analysts. You may contact me by mail, email or telephone to express your interest, or to ask questions.

Membership Applications Diane Cousineau Brutsche & Helga Kopecky _____

We are pleased to announce 2 applicants for AGAP membership as listed below. The Executive Committee has ascertained, to the best of its ability, that each applicant fulfills the constitutional prerequisites for Regular Members (Art. 5.1), or respectively for Affiliated Members (Art. 5.1). In accordance with the Constitution Art. 6.2 and 6.3, "within 30 days any member may present written grounds for objection to the President. In case of objection, the Executive Committee re-examines the application."

stated in writing, and postmarked no later than November 20, 2009. Email is not accepted. On behalf of the President and the Membership Objection Committee (MOC), Jacqueline Wright will receive objections by postal mail:

Jacqueline Wright, EdD
 3857 Ashford Trail, NE
 Atlanta, Georgia 30319, USA

The following colleagues will therefore be admitted unless there is an objection by any current member and this objection is determined by the Executive Committee to be valid. The final decision on membership lies with the Executive Committee.
