AGAP letter to the IAAP societies

Login with your AGAP community account and click on the following discussion topic.

	AGAP LETTER TO THE IAAP SOCIETIES                  The AGAP ExCo has sent a letter to IAAP Society Presidents asking that its contents be discussed among their members. We would also like to discuss the points in this letter with all of AGAP. The 4 main sections are:                  1. Election of the Executive Committee (EC) of the IAAP; 2. Voting Procedures; 3. Good Governance; 4. The Router Program. Please share your opinions on any or all of the content between now and February 4th. Election of the Executive Committee (EC) of the IAAP From the AGAP Letter to IAAP Societies: The only effectively open and genuine contests are for the two Vice-President positions. Do we understand and accept that, for the leadership of an association with over 3000 members, effectively two positions among the five officers are the only openly elected ones? Also, do we find it healthy for our organization that the two Vice-Presidents, after working along side each other for years, are then pitted against each other for such a contested position as President-Elect?
